The Norman Royce Prize 2019

The Society of Construction Arbitrators Norman Royce Prize of £4,000 is awarded to the author of the best paper on a topic relevant to or touching on domestic or international construction disputes, including, but not limited to, their resolution and avoidance; and the lessons to be learnt from them.

A copy of the formal rules of the competition is attached. Anyone intending to enter should consider them in detail. Particular features are:

- The paper must be new and original work intended to make a substantial contribution to the thinking on construction dispute resolution or avoidance.
- The paper must be written in English and should not exceed 5000 words (including footnotes).

Those considering entering should register their interest by sending an email to jvr@johnredmond.co.uk. The closing date for registration of an intention to submit an entry is 30 April 2019.

The closing date for submission of papers is 30 June 2019.
